DUES AND DEPOSIT INFORMATION:

Your Baltimore Biomass energy program membership DUES are used for expenses. Your DEPOSIT money is used to purchase Biomass in bulk. Each member has their own account and makes withdrawals of Biomass throughout the season against that account. The minimum DEPOSIT balance at the beginning of each season must be $300. Our heating season starts on September, 15th 2010.

Type of member	Dues +	Min Deposit =	Total Amount Due
Renewing Member	$25 +	$300 =	$325
New Member	$100 +	$300 =	$400
Pre-Season New Membership	$100 +	$ 0 =	$100 available April 15 through Aug 15

NOTES:

1. We encourage members to make a large enough deposit to cover their corn usage for half the season. This saves time for both you and our accountant. Our average member uses 120 units per season.
2. If you join after Dec 31, the minimum deposit is $200.
3. Renewing Members will have a balance from last year and are only required to bring your total balance up to $325.
4. Pre-season memberships are available April 15 through Aug 15, and will be billed 300.00 at the end of August.
5. Although it is not required you may want to volunteer to help us spread the word about Biomass. If you would like to be contacted periodically about volunteer opportunities check this box

This contract serves as your official membership commitment to the Baltimore Biomass energy program. By signing below, you agree to abide by all of the rules and procedures outlined in the 2010 / 2011 season Baltimore Biomass energy program rules document.
